

The Return of Sherlock Holmes
by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle (1859-1930)

Bowing (grudgingly) to popular demand, Arthur Conan Doyle revived his famous detective after Holmes' apparent death at the end of The Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes. In this collection, published in 1905, Holmes deduces his way through these thirteen more adventures.

Total running time: 11:06:58

- The Adventure of the Empty House, read by Sibella Denton
- The Adventure of the Norwood Builder, read by Zachary Brewster-Geisz
- The Adventure of the Dancing Men, read by Reynard T. Fox
- The Adventure of the Solitary Cyclist, read by Reynard T. Fox
- The Adventure of the Priory School, read by Vivian Bush
- The Adventure of Black Peter, read by Laurie Anne Walden
- The Adventure of Charles Augustus Milverton, read by Gesine
- The Adventure of the Six Napoleons, read by Kristine Mackin
- The Adventure of the Three Students, read by TinyPines
- The Adventure of the Golden Pince-Nez, read by Kristin Hughes
- The Adventure of the Missing Three-Quarter, read by Sarah Jennings
- The Adventure of the Abbey Grange, read by Ken Theriot and Lisa Theriot
- The Adventure of the Second Stain, read by Reynard T. Fox

Cover design by Kathryn Delaney
Illustration by Sidney Paget from first edition of
The Return of Sherlock Holmes

THE RETURN OF SHERLOCK HOLMES

DOYLE

DOYLE THE RETURN OF SHERLOCK HOLMES